

“ARIZONA’S PRONGHORN ANTELOPE—A CONSERVATION LEGACY”

BY DAVID BROWN & RICHARD OCKENFELS
COVER DESIGN BY BONNIE SWARBRICK

Arizona's Pronghorn Antelope is a book that has been needed for some time. It is a complete presentation of the animal's life, history from prehistoric times to the present, and habitat requirements as well as a documentation of the early conservation efforts put forth by hunters and researchers who sought to retrieve the species from the brink of extinction. The abundant photos and graphs illustrate habitat scenes, fences, foods, pronghorn artifacts, management data, and habitat alterations. And although the authors state that their intention is not to publish a technical work, the book contains topics found nowhere else.

The book's narrative equips the reader with the basic knowledge needed to understand the pronghorn in Arizona. These passages will lead you through the pronghorn's development over the past 14 to 18 million years to arrive at its present-day form—an animal of long standing. And, as told, the pronghorn's story makes one wonder about the animal's future and speculate on what past and present activities have done to its numbers and distribution.

To order your copy, complete the following information and mail to:

AAF Book Order
PO Box 12590
Glendale, AZ 85318

If you are not yet an AAF member and would like to join now to take advantage of the Member discount, please select the type of membership below and include the dues with your book payment. For Life Membership pricing, call 602-361-6478.

	QTY	Unit Price*	Subtotal
Softcover AAF Member ONLY	_____	$20	_____
Softcover Non-Member	_____	$30	_____
Hard Cover Signed by Authors	_____	$60	_____
Regular Membership	_____	$40	_____
Family Membership	_____	$60	_____
Sustaining Membership	_____	$100	_____
Life Membership	_____	Call for price	_____
*All prices include shipping.		Order Total	_____

Ordered by:

Name

Address

City, State, Zip

Phone

Email

Please include any special shipping instructions on back.

Method of Payment:

Check or Money Order enclosed

VISA

Master Card

Discover

Credit Card #

Expiration

Signature